Hello, my name is Harold Rice, Jr., the Executive Director & C.E.O. of Albany Park Community Center (APCC) at 3403 W. Lawrence.

Albany Park Community Center (APCC) is a not-for-profit, community-based organization located on Chicago's northwest side. Albany Park's zip code, 60625, is the 3rd most ethnically diverse in the nation. Incorporated in 1975, APCC is the largest social service agency in the Albany Park neighborhood.

For more than 30 years, APCC has been ranked as one of the top community organizations in Chicago, and continues to be a model for many programs nationwide. APCC has grown to a multi-service organization with over 20 program departments serving more than 8,600 clients annually. All programs are grouped into one of three major program divisions: Children's Services, Youth Services and Adult and Community Services. APCC's programs educate and support members of the community as they determine their own path of growth and development by providing a diverse array of services to a broad range of individuals, families, groups and businesses.

Our community is not only unity by its diverse ethnic make-up, but by its socioeconomic factors that we all have in common.

I am writing in support of the current proposal of HB3760 that accurately addresses issues that this community has in common. Based on the current redistricting proposed for the State of Illinois, I am in support of that also. It is extremely important to look at district lines that aid organizations and communities like ours to get the necessary support and help our constituents need as well as a voice within the complex government structure that exists for a culturally diverse community.

I welcome the opportunity to address any questions regarding our position.

Sincerely,

Harold Rice, Jr.
Executive Director & C.E.O.
